

Kingdom Education Ministries

Capturing the Next Generation for Christ through Kingdom Education

$50 Off of an Annual KEM Prime Membership

Kingdom Education Ministries is dedicated to helping Christian schools impact the hearts and minds of the next generation. This requires school staffs and board members to know, understand and embrace a biblical philosophy of education. As a KEM Prime Member now allows the school's staff, board members and all school families access to the resources necessary to accomplish this task. With this special discount, a school can access these resources for only $250 per year. The following steps will guide you through the membership process.
